

CEDARSTONE GROUP, LLC

The Cedarstone Group is a Civil and Environmental Engineering Firm. The company has experience in general civil engineering, environmental permitting, construction project design and management. We have long established relationships with mapping companies, environmental scientists, and regulatory agencies throughout the Southeast.

General Civil Engineering Experience

- Construction Project Management
- Civil Site Design (commercial and residential)
- Sanitary Sewer Design
- Stormwater System Design
- Natural Resource Evaluation Plans
- Mine Planning
- Quarry Efficiency Studies
- Comprehensive Regional Overburden Removal Studies
- Digital Mapping and Topographic Map Production

Environmental Engineering Experience

- Stormwater Pollution Prevention Plans
- Spill Prevention Countermeasure Plans
- Best Management Practice Plan Design
- Individual NPDES Permit Applications
- General ARAP Permit Applications
- Corp of Engineer Permit Applications
- General NPDES, NOI Permit Applications
- Wetland Delineation
- Threatened and Endangered Species Reports
- Archeological/ Historical Reports
- Environmental Assessments

The Cedarstone Group is a company that believes in the conservation of our environment through proper evaluation of our available natural resources. Proper planning for the utilization of those resources with a thorough plan for reclamation and restoration. Our goal is to provide sustainable supportive engineering solutions.

